

A Coin

It all started when I picked up a coin from the pavement. Some says it's bad luck picking up a coin from the ground. Most people say it's very lucky when you do. In my case, it was unlucky.

It was a Sunday morning, I decided to walk to the church, since it was a nice and sunny day. As I was walking near the church, something shiny caught my eye. Near the bushes there was a coin. I went to take a closer look and what I saw surprised me. It had a skull on it. I tried to read what the word was, but it was in another language. The coin was something giving me a bad feeling, but it was soon cut off when the church bells rang indicating the prayer was about to begin.

Later that day, as I was walking out of the chapel, an old peculiar-looking woman approached me and asked me about the coin. Alarmingly, I took out the coin and showed it to her. She took and gave me back the coin, slowly shaking her head. She asked me if I knew anything about the coin. I replied no she told me that it would bring me bad luck, and it's better for me to get rid of it before it's too late.

At first, I didn't believe her obviously, I am the child of God. I was well under his protection. But then strange things started happening. Cars with no drivers, started coming to me, animals kept following me. And a man or I may say a creature was inside my home. It was staring at me through my bedroom window. I was about to call the police, when I suddenly started to hear whispers. They told me I had 7 hours to get rid of the coin or else...! I was still hesitating, but then I started to see my house shaking and blood pouring out of the wall. I ran back to the chapel and saw the woman was still there. She told me to give her the coin and take care of the rest. As soon as I gave it to her, it was as if a weight had been lifted off me. I thanked her and went back home and I no longer saw the woman or the coin. But it's safe to say, I'm never picking up any coins or strange items on the ground.
