Dear Grandpa,

How are you? I miss you so much. I love my new school. We have a lot of fun activities. Yesterday our school visited Ciao Pizza Restaurant. I went with my class teacher and my classmates. We went there by bus and it didn't take long to get there. The weather was nice too.

When we arrived, we were greeted by a good-looking restaurant with a spectacular sea-view. A kind lady named Lucy who works there showed us around. She gave each of us an apron and a chef's hat to prepare us for pizza making.

We started off by making the dough flat, then made it into a plate-like shape in the baking tray. Then she gave us the tomato sauce and we used a technique called shake-shake-turn to spread it on the dough. It was great fun. Then we put the toppings on the dough. I put mushrooms, bacon, salami, and olives on mine. And, of course, let's not forget the best part of pizza – the cheese!

After that the staff marked the baking tray according to our apron numbers. Then our pizzas were put in the oven. While we were waiting, Lucy told us some facts about the origin of the restaurant. When our pizzas were done, I felt hungry and happy. I enjoyed the trip so much because it was fun and the pizza tasted delicious!

Hope you're doing well!

Best regards,

Chris
